1. Legal Bills

GSL $ 27.50

- 2. Statements of Economic Interests Update
  - Due May 2017. Board members need to complete if haven't yet.
- 3. Audit Firm Proposal Review
  - Recommendation of the school is to use Clifton Larson Allen. They are the least expensive option and have worked well with us in the past. Also note that Kim Disalvo is being recognized by ISBE for having exemplary bookkeeping.
- 4. FY 18 School Calendar
  - o No issues voiced on the calendar.
- 5. Bi-annual Review of Closed Session Minutes/Recordings
  - Ed Jamison did a review of closed session minutes and recommends to keep them closed. He recommends destroying the recordings older than 18 months, as allowed by OMA.
- 6. Board Member Protocols for Archived Documents
  - Agreed that we should create a Board procedure or policy to address Board members keeping school information secure. Should include, at minimum, awareness for new board members as well as how to handle things when a Board member ends their service. Will send back to Governance for drafting.
- 7. Committee Updates
  - Academic Excellence committee has been talking about potential changes in upper grade bands to be able to ensure appropriate math placement for all children. For several reasons, including addressing scheduling changes to allow for the math program enhancements, consideration is being given to separating the mixed age 5th/6th classrooms. The Board discussed that there are benefits to either option (mixed age vs separate) at these grade levels. Mrs McGovern voiced that in the past the 3rd/4th grade band teachers have appreciated having 3 placement options to consider for their 3rd grade students moving to 4th grade. She also indicated after that having heard that older grade levels may be doing more differentiation with math, the 3rd/4th grade teachers have initiated discussions around potentially creating math levels in their grade band as well.

Public Comment 10 Minutes

• Mrs McGovern voiced that PCCS salaries are the lowest for elementary schools in Lake County (per Daily Herald publication earlier this year). She asked that the Board be sensitive to this fact during salary reopener discussions.
