Our Learning

4th Grade Math: We continue to learn about fractions in class. Students are learning how to change a mixed number into an improper fraction, equivalent fractions, and adding and subtracting fractions with a different denominator. We will add decimals this week to our studies. Keep up the good work!

Reading: Third graders read the novel The Chocolate Touch and fourth graders The Underworlds in class. We are currently working on our Book cover "sequel" projects that students will share with you at conferences.

Science/Social Studies: We completed our light unit this week and will move onto sound this week in Science.

Writing: Students completed their personal narratives in class. I am very pleased with their work! This week, we will begin our informational writing unit.

Thank you! Thank you for a wonderful Halloween party for our students. They really enjoyed themselves.
