

Mrs.O's

Classroom News

November 22, 2019

Conferences

- * Thank you for signing up for conferences. I look forward to meeting with you and your student on Monday or Tuesday. You will receive a reminder from Signup genius as well.

Scholastic Book Fair

- *It is cash free. Parents can pre-pay and place a set amount of money into a Scholastic E-Wallet. Parents can learn more about this HERE. You may also purchase books at conferences using a credit/debit card. Thank you!

Future Dates

- * Mon. 11/25 Early Release-Conferences
- * Tues. 11/26 Early Release-Conferences
- * Wed. 11/27- Fri. 11/29 No School
- * School Resumes Monday, Dec. 2nd

Our Learning

4th Grade Math: Students earned their class reward...yay!!! On Thursday, we watched Charlie Brown and a Trolls special. It was well deserved and enjoyed by all. Students completed Unit 3's assessment and we will begin Unit 4 on Monday, December 2nd. Students should continue to practice IXL using the "recommendations" tab once they are logged in.

Reading: Students continue to read short passages and answer corresponding comprehension questions. We will begin our next novel study on December 2nd.

Science/Social Studies: The sound assessment has been moved to Monday, November 26th. After, we will begin our unit on electricity.

Writing: Students completed their informational papers. They self-assessed their final drafts and will be graded using the same rubric. Our next unit of study is opinion.

Thank you for your change for change support! Have a great weekend.